What is a Kitchen Remodel?

Whenever the look and layout of spaces are changed, that is considered a remodel. A kitchen remodel is transformational. The possibilities are endless and can produce eye-popping changes. For example, you can take out a window and replace it with a cabinet for more storage space or, on the other hand, add a window to bring in more natural light. Or you can design an expansive open kitchen with an island to change a tiny, uninviting kitchen into a larger, more inviting space. How you transform your kitchen is up to you.

Why Should I Remodel My Kitchen?

One of the best ways for people to enhance their home's appeal and resale value is by creating a redesigned custom kitchen. With almost three decades in the construction business, you can be confident that we'll affordably design and remodel your kitchen into a space you'll enjoy and dazzle guests.

What is a Basement Remodel?

It's your chance to make structural changes to your basement to transform it into a functional living space. A basement remodel is a gut and redesign of an already finished basement. An effective remodel will optimize your basement's layout while bringing it to code and adding value to your home.

Why Should I Remodel My Basement?

Your decision to remodel your basement will create unique places for each family member or family. Your imagination only limits the use of the remodeled basement space. Your redesigned basement can feature functional living spaces like a kitchen, bathroom, and living/sleeping areas. Or, if you like to entertain, put in a bar and recreation room.

What is a Man Cave Remodel?

The term "Man Cave" is a relatively new phrase describing an area in a home designed to suit a man's preferences and used for his recreational activities. While incorporating these spaces into a home's design isn't anything new, they are becoming more popular, and remodeling these spaces can be an opportunity to create unique spaces that reflect a man's character and serve as a space for him to relax and unwind.

Why Should I Remodel My Man Cave?

Because it's your space and it should fit you like a warm, comfortable sweater!

Whether your man cave is in a basement, garage, attic, or any other home area, your man cave is your retreat. Make sure that it's a functional, dedicated space for you to kick back and pursue your interests, and the room's design should reflect those interests.

S&R Custom Homes and Remodeling, Inc. is here to help you create your spaces uniquely. We'll remodel your man cave to suit your budget and needs.
